

KOI "Life" Inventory

Author: Administrator User<koi@sc-koi.com>

Selected resellers are now able to integrate the KOI offered on our homepage, directly into their web shops. This way they are able to automatically offer vast number of KOI while maintaining their individual design and presence.

We have upgraded our business and internet operations to provide our resellers with a competitive edge in the areas of customer service and marketing.

Selected resellers are now able to integrate the KOI offered on our homepage, directly into their web shops. This way they are able to automatically offer vast number of KOI while maintaining their individual design and presence.

This campaign is focused especially at the USA. Please note that your server will need to be able to execute PHP and/or PERL. Contact us via email for more information.

This technology is currently used for pre-orders only. We only deal with resellers and wholesalers. Your customers stay your customers. Due to high demand we can not guarantee 100% availability of the depicted koi. Koi are sold on a first-serve basis.
